28 Porträts von Frauen, die in Dietmar Griesers Leben auf diese oder jene Weise eine Rolle gespielt haben.

They flock his book launch presentations. At his lectures they stand in line for getting dedications and personalized autographs. And when they have finished reading his latest book they write him letters. Yes, women love him – and he loves them in return. But who are those others, whom Dietmar Grieser renders homage to when he is to himself, aside from his professional life. In twenty-eight sometimes very personal portraits he makes them take curtain calls: women who in certain phases of his life have meant a lot to him, have left a very special impression on him, perhaps have shaped him, in any case women who have secured themselves a permanent place in Dietmar Grieser's memory. Women, whom he met personally and who have accompanied him for some time on the paths that led him through lif...
