

Artur Bodenstein (Illustrated by)

Bernhard Studlar (Edited by)

ALPHABET SOUP

A Literary Cookbook

Wiener Wortstaetten

Broschur, 176 Pages, 125 x 205

ISBN: 9783701716562

€ 18,90 incl. VAT

Release date: 29.10.2015

Alphabet soup is a celebration of literary and culinary diversity, to be devoured on the page and the plate!

The successful intercultural theatre project "Wiener Wortstaetten" is celebrating its tenth birthday. Since 2005 it has hosted theatrical productions by writers from various countries speaking various languages and reflecting the diversity of the capital Vienna: Turkey, Russia, Iran, Bulgaria and states from the former Yugoslavia have all been represented. As well as enriching German-language literature with their stories, writing and performing for the "Wiener Wortstaetten", each writer also cooked unique soups, mixing ingredients from their old and new homes. Short stories and recipes by Ibrahim Amir, Susanne Ayoub, Ana Bilic, Seher Cakir, Yasmin Hafedh, Michal Hvorecky, Jérôme Junod, Ursula Knoll, Rhea, Krčmářová, Valerie Melichar, Barbi Markovic, Azar Mortazavi, Goran Novakovic, Dom...

ARTUR BODENSTEIN (ILLUSTRATED BY)

born in 1974, lives and works as freelance illustrator and designer in Vienna. He is responsible for "Wiener Wortstaetten's" visual identity since 2005.

BERNHARD STUDLAR (EDITED BY)

born in 1972, studied scenic writing at the UdK Berlin. Among others, the dramatist has hitherto been writing for the Viennese Burgtheater and the "German Schauspielhaus" in Hamburg. Since 2005 and together with Hans Escher, Studlar runs the intercultural theater-project "Wiener Wortstaetten".