

Tanja Maljartschuk

BIOGRAPHY OF A MIRACLE BY CHANCE

Translated from the Ukrainian by Anna Kauk

Hardcover, 220 Pages, 125 x 205

ISBN: 9783701716128

€ 21,90 incl. VAT

Release date: 27.08.2013

Fierce and flippant: a book you won't easily forget!

Lena was born into a world that is arbitrary and violent. The girl learns to cope with life's hardships with wit, persistence and a great deal of courage. She also tries to help others: the kindergarten teacher, homeless dogs that are supposed to be sold to a Chinese restaurant, discus thrower Wassylyna, and her friend, Dog, who lost her legs to frostbite. On her search for a 'miracle by chance' – a kind of flying female super hero who is said to turn up wherever help is needed the most – Lena manages to conquer the challenges she faces. Tanja Maljartschuk's book is a masterpiece of dark and gruesome humor – a book you won't forget!

TANJA MALJARTSCHUK

born in 1983 in Iwano-Frankiwnsk, Ukraine. After finishing her studies of Philosophy at the Prykarpattia National University she started working as a journalist for TV. Since 2011 she is living in Vienna. 2009, her first book - a collection of short stories - has been published in German language ("Neunprozentiger Haushaltssig").