Love has many faces... every couple is a miracle in itself!

Every couple has its special story: Iny and Elmar Lorentz write bestsellers together ("Die Wanderhure") and go on reading tours in their caravan, while extreme mountain climber Gerlinde Kaltenbrunner and her husband Ralf Dujmovits enjoy the thrill of danger. Christl and Rupert Neudeck ("Cap Anamur") are both living the dream of a better world, while author Peter Turrini and his wife Silvia Hassler have decided to live in separate houses in two different villages. Others are separated or connected by large differences in age or different religions. One couple got married twice, another found happiness after gender reassignment. Eva Maria and Wolfram Zurhorst, the authors of "Liebe dich selbst und es ist egal wen du heiratest", recount borderline experiences they've had to face in their rela...
