

Kurt Bauer

HITLER'S SECOND COUP D'ÉTAT

Dollfuss, the Nazis and July 25, 1934

Hardcover, 312 Pages, 140 x 220

ISBN: 9783701733293

€ 27,00 incl. VAT

Release date: 20.03.2014

The dramatic story of the National Socialist coup d'état in Catholic corporatist Austria

A scientific sensation! Kurt Bauer clears up the many myths that surround the July Putsch of 1934 in Austria. He is the first to prove that the coup d'état was ordered by Hitler himself. At 12.53 pm on July 25, 1934, 150 SS troops stormed the chancellery in Vienna. Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, self-proclaimed leader of the authoritarian Austro-fascist state, was heavily wounded and subsequently died. The rebels in Vienna gave up by nighttime, but a bloody upheaval of Nazis escalated in the provinces. At the same time, Hitler was listening to Wagner in Bayreuth's festival hall. But things were far from calm in the dictator's box, as he was impatiently awaiting news from Austria...

KURT BAUER

born in 1961 in St. Peter am Kammersberg (Styria), trained typesetter, worked for many years as a producer and publishing editor, studied history at the University of Vienna part-time. Freelance historian since 2007, employee of the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Research on the Consequences of War, Graz - Vienna since 2019. Author of numerous well-known books on Austrian contemporary history, most recently "Hitlers zweiter Putsch" (Residenz Verlag, 2014), "Die dunklen Jahre" (2017), "Der Februaraufstand 1934" (2019) and "Niemandsländ zwischen Krieg und Frieden" (2025).